If you choose to extend the function after the 6 hour period, an extra charge will apply for every half hour thereafter.

FUNCTIONS BUFFET

Buffets are priced according to the number of items you choose from the menu items list attached. Depending on the number of guests you have and the quantity of food items you choose, an average Buffet Menu cost can vary between $33.00 to $38.00 per head. You may choose to have more items; however the cost may increase should you decide to choose more varieties of foods than the recommended pricing.

We can assist you with choosing menu items and the amount of items needed for your function.

BUFFET TABLE ITEMS

Foods are served by the platters, trays and in bowls.

MAINS

5 to 6 items is an average amount of foods to choose from the Main Buffet Table Items.

SALADS & VEGETABLES

3 to 4 items is an average amount of foods to choose from.

COFFEE & TEA

DESSERTS

Optional – charged by a per head basis.

EXTRAS

Antipasto and Soup are not considered a Main Buffet Table Item as they are served on each guest's table. They are individually priced and for your convenience the prices are stated in the attached menu.

REFILLS

All Buffets are quoted with a starting function price once you have chosen your function menu. A starting price is calculated upon the average number of guests you have and the food items you choose. This price will not include any extras should you need to have refills.

Refills occur when a particular food or foods are popular or when people get up two to three times to refill their plates of a particular item. As each guest is different, it is difficult to gauge exactly what foods will be eaten the most. Due to this, we start off with an average serve of each food item. Staff then monitors the food to see if refills of certain foods are required. Refills can be an extra platter of mix, an extra bowl of calamari rings or an extra bowl of chips etc. Refills are served on the direction and choice of each individual function holder as required.
